AKP U-A MUGS FOR SALE

Saturday at 5 p.m. is the deadline for ordering University of Alaska personalized mugs. The 26-27 ounce black-or-white and gold mugs can be ordered from Alpha Kappa Psi members for $5. The mugs carry "University of Alaska" around the top, a U-A seal, the class year and nickname of the owner. The last two items need not be included. Orders are being taken by Ken Smith, AKP mug committee chairman, 207 Lathrop Hall, and Gordon Ganschow, 108 Stevens Hall.

CONSERVATION OFFICERS' COURSE GIVEN

The 10th annual military conservation officers' course began Monday on campus and will continue through Saturday. Approximately 35 are attending the course which is under the direction of David R. Klein, leader, Cooperative Wildlife Research Unit.

BASKETBALL GAMES SCHEDULED

The Nanooks will play the Ft. Wainwright Rangers at Ft. Wainwright Friday, Dec. 14, and the Eielson Outlaws at the U-A gym, Saturday, Dec. 15.

HOLIDAYS AHEAD

A bulletin from President Wood's office reads as follows: "In accordance with recent Federal and State announcements on the same topic, the University of Alaska has designated Monday, Dec. 24, as an additional holiday and offices will not be open that day. This announcement applies to all personnel, except those whose special duties are essential to the security and safety of the campus, as determined by the University Engineer. It does not, of course, relate to the academic year faculty appointments.

Monday, Dec. 31, which also precedes a major holiday, may be taken as a part of annual leave, providing permission of the department head is requested and granted in advance."

"Nanook News" will not be printed Dec. 27. The last issue for 1962 will be the Dec. 20th one. Items of news for events between Dec. 20 and Jan. 3 should be forwarded to Mrs. Doris Davidson, Office of Information, by noon, Wednesday, Dec. 19.
