Vol. VIII No. 8 UNIVERSITY OF ALASKA
Faculty-Staff Bulletin

October 20, 1966

'TWELFTH NIGHT' TO BE PRESENTED

The debut of the first full-length Shakespeare production in Alaska will be held October 28 on campus.

The University's Drama Workshop will present six performances of Shakespeare's boisterous comedy, "Twelfth Night," October 28-30 and November 4-6.

Performances will be in Schaible Lecture Hall. Curtain time for each performance is 8:15 p.m.

Tickets are now on sale at the U of A Bookstore, Adler's Book Shop, A-1 Music Shop, the International Shop and the Alaska House.

A CALL FOR HOSPITALITY

Ever wanted to entertain a member (or members) of a symphony orchestra in your home for dinner? Here's your chance:

November 5, the Anchorage Symphony Orchestra will present a concert in the Patty Building gymnasium at 8:15 p.m. (More details in this issue.) The musicians will arrive early in the day, rehearse and then--naturally--they should be hungry.

The sponsoring Special Events Committee, alert to such vital considerations, issued a call for members of the University community to extend an invitation to dinner for orchestra players. Similar invitations issued at last year's orchestra appearance were enthusiastically accepted by the musicians.

Interested gourmets--or just plain short order cooks--may call Carolyn Brown at Ext. 248 to arrange to invite an orchestra player (or players) for chow.

THAI EDUCATORS CONFER WITH U OF A LEADERS

Six educators from Thailand are touring campus today to see how the University operates.

The visit is part of a 3 1/2-month tour the group is making to view operations of colleges and universities throughout the world. After completing the tour, the educators will return to Thailand to use the information they have gained to help them plan future development of their country's higher educational system.

While on campus, the group is meeting with university leaders to discuss various phases of a university's operations and administration. They will leave Fairbanks this evening enroute to the lower 48.

ANTHROPOLOGY SOCIETY TO REORGANIZE

The Arctic Anthropological Society will hold a reorganizational meeting Thursday, October 27, at 7:30 p.m. in the Commons Lounge.

The program will be highlighted by an introduction of new members of the University's Anthropology Department and a discussion of future plans for the development of studies of anthropology in Alaska.

All former members of the society and interested persons are invited to attend. Refreshments will be served.

ANCHORAGE SYMPHONY ORCHESTRA PLANS U OF A CONCERT

The Anchorage Symphony Orchestra will present a concert on the University campus November 5 under the sponsorship of the Special Events Committee.

Included in the program are Howard Hanson's "Romantic" Symphony No. 2, the Piano Concerto No. 1 by Mendelssohn, the Piano Concerto No. 2 by Saint-Saens, and Soirees Musicales by Britten. Jean-Paul Billaud, assistant professor of music at the University, will be featured soloist for the two piano concertos.

The concert will begin at 8:15 p.m. in the Patty Building gymnasium. Tickets will be on sale at the University Bookstore and the Music Shop in Fairbanks, starting Monday, October 24. Admission price is $1.50 for students and $2 for adults.

THEY MADE IT ALL THE WAY!

Well, here it is, somewhat belatedly, the official (and maybe not complete) list of those intrepid members of the staff and faculty and their spouses who somehow made it all the way to the finish line in the fourth running of the Equinox Marathon.

Nanook News offers hearty congratulations to these new recipients of the coveted Marathon patch and condolences to a great many other faculty-staff members who started the race but for one reason or another bowed out before the finish.

If we've missed anyone in this historic announcement, our apologies. A call to Nanook News at Ext. 581 will result in publication of any missing name in our next issue.

Here are the finishers and their official times:

WOMEN--Patricia Pyne, 5:32:55; Sherry Dunlap, 8:07:38; Mary Hammer, 8:07:43, and Toni Haines, 8:55:47.

MEN--Lew Haines, 5:25:04; Don Miller, 7:04:15; Bob Dellenbach, 7:44:33; John Burdick and John Hilpert, 8:35:49; David Klein, 8:39:06; Bill Mendenhall, 8:56:34; John Miller, 9:18:41 and William R. Wood, 9:49:51.

Now, c'mon y'all, let's get in training for next year!
