

Appendix A

A Bottle in the Gaza Sea Assessment

BE SURE TO: GO TO FILE; MAKE A COPY; NAME THIS WAY: PERIOD NUMBER, FIRST INITIAL, LAST NAME AND ASSIGNMENT NAME (BOTTLEINTHEGAZACOMPAREANDCONTRAST). THEN SHARE IT WITH GIESER (F209576)

Name/Period

When keeping notes try not to make value judgments (good, bad, like, dislike, etc.) just make lists of what you see. You'll have time to think about them later (6 out of ten boxes need notes).

Setting	Jerusalem (Tal Levine, Israeli, Jewish)	Gaza (Naim, Palestinian, Muslim)
Family home and personal living spaces
Recreational spaces and activities available
Educational facilities and opportunities available
Security conditions/threat of imminent danger
Infrastructure (roads, utilities, etc.)

Pick three settings and write an a paragraph according to this outline: double space

Topic sentences (see: "giesersmethodsforwritingatopicsentence" on Google Docs.)

Detail 1 Setting:

Write what was life like for Tal. (1-2 sentences)

Write what was life like for Naim

Detail 2 Setting:

Write what was life like for Tal. (1-2 sentences)

Write what it was like for Naim (1-2 sentences)

Detail 3 Setting:

Write what was life like for Tal. (1-2 sentences)

Write what was life like for Naim (1-2 sentences)

Conclusion (So, + Topic Sentence = Conclusion)

Pick one of the following questions and write a 6-8 sentence paragraph:

Both the author and director create a sense of fear and trepidation in the opening of this story, yet each uses their own vision to create it. Write a 6-8 sentence paragraph describing how the director brings the authors words to life using film.

Topic sentence

detail 1 what do you hear?

elaborate, describe more detail 2 what do you see?

elaborate, describe more

detail 3 what do you feel?

elaborate

conclusion

In the movie Naim is taken in by armed guards and interrogated about his computer use. This is not shown in the book. Using a 6-8 sentence paragraph, please explain why the director chose to film this scene.

Topic Sentence

Reason 1

Elaborate: Tell me more about the author's reason

Reason 2

Elaborate Tell me more about the author's reason

Reason 3

Elaborate Tell me more about the author's reason

Conclusion

In the movie Tal is born in France as opposed to Israel. Analyze and reach conclusions as to why the director felt he needed to make this difference. How does the fact that Tal is not Israeli by birth, effect Naim's attitude towards her? How might Tal and Naim's attitude about the conflict differ since Naim was born into it and Tal immigrated into it? Neither one really had a choice, but there is a difference.

Topic sentence

Conclusion 1

Elaborate: Tell me why you reached this conclusion

Conclusion 2

Elaborate: Tell me why you reached this conclusion

Conclusion 3

Elaborate: Tell me why you reached this conclusion

Conclusion Sentence

How are the book and movie the same? Pick three examples (8 sentence)

Topic Sentence

detail from movie

detail from book

detail from movie

detail from book

detail from movie

detail from book

Conclusion Sentence